CHESTER HOUSE 2020

Moving to Christchurch for Study or Work?

Come join a fun, caring, Christian flat and be part of an active community living within Christchurch's vibrant and regenerating inner city.

Meet Caleb, our friendly flat supervisor who lives just a few doors away from Chester House.

Be Supported to Live and Thrive

Chester House is supported by a dedicated student supervisor and team of young adults from Oxford Terrace Baptist who live close by. The year kicks off with a weekend away in Akaroa to hang out and get to know each other. It's our hope that Chester House will be a place where flatmates grow in Christ, find support for life, study and work, and are integrated into a community of faith while living away from home.

House Details

The house is on Kilmore Street, on the eastern fringe of central Christchurch, nearby Oxford Terrace Baptist Church. It's within walking distance of the central city and Ara, and a 20-min bike ride to the University of Canterbury campus. Bedrooms come furnished with basic bedroom furniture. The rest of the house is furnished and ready to live in. Costs are $150/week to be paid from move in date. Other house expenses are to be negotiated by flat mates. A bond of $300 is to be paid at move in (repaid on moving out).

These bedrooms will be furnished with a bed, desk, chair and storage.
